

Mark R. Bagwell

1000 Johnson Street #605, San Francisco, CA 94101
Phone: 200-300-400 E-Mail: Mark.Bagwell@me.com

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS PROFILE

- Extensive academic and professional expertise in Asian relations
- Level II Korean language proficiency
- Strong research, analytical & writing skills
- Executive-level management experience
- International logistics and facilities management experience
- Political communication, public relations, and media message-framing expertise
- Service as mediator in political negotiations
- Fluency in security operations protocols
- Political advising and policy briefing experience
- Frequently consults Statesmen, politicians, etc.

Professional Experience

Information Officer

June 2012 – Present

- Organization 1 Aug. 2014
  - Responsible for providing global strategic communication support to a vital US interests.
- Organization 2 July 2014
  - Researching and writing a book under the tutelage of Dr. Osterricher (PhD. Harvard) and an Ambassador on the schematics for Asian affairs.
- Organization 3 July 2012
  - Collect information, conduct in-depth technical research, published analysis, and identify and exposed key elements necessary to understanding regime behavior. Analysis has resulted in congressman, senators, Statesman, and the press seeking policy recommendations.

Independent Contractor

Oct. 2009 – Dec. 2013

- Organization 4
  - Selected by the CEO of Organization 4 to coordinate a XXXX XXXX XXXXXX and XXXXXX government sponsored joint project between XXXX and XXXX as part of the public diplomacy mechanism of President XXXX XXXXXXXX Doctrine.
  - CEO of appraised work as “having a measurable diplomatic impact”.
- Organization 5
  - Selected based on public diplomacy expertise and extensive Asian affairs contacts to manage public relations and coordinate the logistics necessary to film XXXX XXX XXX XXXXX XXXXXXXX.
  - The non-State actor public diplomacy methodology used for this project have been appraised by numerous government officials, studied by various think tanks, and taught at IV league institutions.
  - Managed public relations and strategic communications aspects of the project by framing and crafting information dissemination to the mass media for general public consumption resulting in millions of views and exclusively positive feedback.
- Organization 6
  - Formed, led, and supervised a national coalition of veterans to support XXXXX Governor XXXXXXXX 2012 Presidential candidacy, with direct oversight of two appointed representatives per State.

Bagewll, Mark

- Crafted campaign goals with the campaign manager, frequently taking responsibility for managing the press and framing political messages to generate public support for the Governor's policy agenda.

Organization 7

June. 2005 – July 2009

■ Title 7

- Edited and developed content for a twenty-six book series which were widely distributed and used to XXX XXXXXX XX XXXXXXXXX at private academies throughout XXXXXXXX.

■ Title 8

- Taught XXXXXXXXXXXX to hundreds of college students and businesspersons, assisting them in successful entrance into academic programs, test passing, or achieving business objectives.

Organization 8

Dec. 1997 – Mar. 2006

■ Title 9

- Responsible for the coordination, planning, and briefing of Squadron-level training operations requirements in accordance with the units' wartime mission responsibility to higher Army echelons. Supervised, trained, and led forty soldiers and five officers in corporate-level operations planning capacity.

■ Title 10

- Received, disseminated, and transmitted classified and secret intelligence in accordance with Army regulations and protocol.

■ Title 11

- Directly responsible for the management, maintenance and accountability of six US Army installations and ALL associated property with a net value of 1 billion dollars while the Department of the Army prepared them for hand-over to XXXXXXXX.

■ Title 12

- Provided mentorship, training, and leadership to sixteen soldiers and one officer. Responsible for the maintenance and accountability of four US Army assets, net-valued in excess 20 million dollars.
- Instilled discipline, providing stern leadership, and fostered team-building practices necessary for achievement of all assigned missions. Orchestrated all implied logistical, technical, tactical, and managerial tasking's associated with assigned unit missions with little-to-no direct instruction.

■ Title 13

- Selected by the Army Chief of Staff General Eric Shinseki to serve as his personal security guard, aid de camp, and security force team leader. Coordinated and managed General Shinseki's itinerary, transport, security protocol, and implemented threat reduction measures for his personal security.

Education

Master of International Service (MIS)

Harvard University

May 2014

Thesis: "Escape to XXXX:" A Case Study in Non-State Actor Public Diplomacy for State Public Diplomacy Transformation

GPA: 3.7/4.0

Graduate Certificate License #12-0205

Shanghai University

Aug. 2012

Asian Relations Relations

GPA: 4.0/4.0

Bachelor of the Arts (BA) - Int'l Communications

Princeton University

Dec. 2012